The first time I met Pearlie she just started talking to me like she had known me for years, She was just a very special friend and woman. You never knew what pearlie was gonna say....but what you saw was what you got.. She never tried to be something she was,nt. She was just pure and true. And we will miss her.. Love you Pearlie

I spoke with Aunt Pearlie every day, sometimes several times throughout the day. She was one of the most honest individuals I had the pleasure of knowing. I love you Aunt Pearlie and I will miss you. It was a privilege to call you family and friend.
