“ I am so sad to hear about Miss Annie's passing. She wrote me a letter several years ago telling about how she and Bob (Mr. Buford) took my parents (Doyle Bennett & Louise Landers) to Danielsville to get married in 1940 and they stood up with them. Then they took them back home. She went on to tell me a bit more about what was going on back then. It meant so much to me to have this piece of family history written down from her and it is kept with my parents' special documents and photos. What a dear sweet lady she was. I know you will all miss her, but I'm sure you have wonderful memories that will keep her in your heart forever.

With love, Linda (Bennett) Harrington

“ To the family of Miss Annie Mae so sorry I was not able to see you during this time. We could have talk about the good times our parents visited each other and us children playing together. May God's presence be with you during this time and you have a complete peace. That is a lovely picture of your mother. Elaine Hill Nix
