“Darrell worked at my parents restaurant in Royston when he was a teenager. I can still see him in my memories flipping burgers at the grill. When his parents came by in his shiny "new" (used) car he was beaming with pride. He will always be that skinny dark-haired sweet polite boy in my memory. God has called him to peace now. My condolences to all of his family.

I sat next to, and saved a seat for Darrell each week at mass. I just learned of his passing Sunday in church. So sorry to hear this, he was a very good man, and shared some good stories and knowledge of poultry with me. God bless him as we all pray for him
