“ Oh Bennie I can't believe I'm hearing this. I remember the day I met you. You was with Anthony walking down the road. You quickly became friends with Doug and was our every friday night ride along to Athens for the mall, toys r us and dinner. You became one of the family taking the New York trips, playing cards at Wallys house, and eating Sunday dinner at Nanna. I remember the day you met Michelle and how she then became my friend to have someone hang with every Friday night. I know over the yrs we drifted as paths change pace but I never forgot you or Michelle. I can't believe the world and your beautiful family have to endure the pain of loosing you! You will be truly missed by them and many more! Till we meet again on the other side my friend!

“ I think I gave Bennie his first job. I watched him grow into a capable and thoughtful man. He loved his family and is loved by them. He was a great help to on my property. He had his Mischievous side, I remember him writing his name in my lawn with roundup. All that know him will miss him. He was a good man.
