“ I miss you already. You were my very best childhood friend and cousin. We shared many secrets and laughter, sprinkled with a little mischievous fun. We grew up, took different paths in life, but our love for each other remained. My heart is totally broken. I didn't see you much in our adult years, only for family funerals. Now I've lost you. I won't ever get to see you or hug you or laugh with you here on this earth Bootsy, but I'll meet you on the other side. And until then I will hold you in my heart. My memories will never die. I love you sweet girl. My deepest heartfelt sympathy for Jimmy, Kerry, Scott, and all the rest of the family. May our Lord give you peace and comfort thru this most difficult journey. If I can do anything for either of you, please let me know. I'm so sorry for your loss. Love, Tric
