“ Miss Betty was such a beautiful, loving, kind & compassionate woman. She played such a big role personally in my life from a small child, to now a woman with my own family & children. I have always looked up to both Betty & Bant & could only hope I could be half the woman, wife, & mother Betty has always been. Heaven has gained a sweet angel, but she will definitely missed by all here on earth. She was (& I have no doubt still is in heaven) so proud of Kim, Jacob, & Eric & definitely had every reason to be proud. Betty loved Bant with all of her heart, just as Bant loved and still loves her. We will miss you Betty, but are so thankful God chose us to be blessed & be your friend in this life. Our lives are much better just because you were part of them. We love you, Bant, Kim, Eric and Jacob! You all are in our hearts, on our minds, and in our prayers during this difficult time. We love you all.

“ Betty was my first cousin, but she was more like a sister to me. She was an only child, and so was I, so we always claimed each other as our sister. Even though I have always lived in NC, so much of our lives are intertwined. In my teens, I would spend several weeks of summers with Betty. Betty and Bant let me tag along on their dates and even allowed me to stay with them when they were first married and never made me feel like a "third wheel." Betty and I were so much alike, could see something to laugh about in almost every situation and could usually find ourselves in some embarrassing situations which gave us much to laugh about later. Even in more recent years, when we would call each other just to see what was going on, we would giggle until we would become almost hysterical over something we remembered from our past or something we shared that had happened to us recently. Talking with each other was good therapy. I will really miss talking to her. When we would visit each other, which wasn't often in recent years, it was always as if we had never been apart. A huge chunk of my life will forever miss her, but I know she is enjoying the reunion with her parents and mine. She was such a caring, generous, and selfless person. One of her greatest joys was doing for others. FAITH, FAMILY, FRIENDS---these are the words that define her. My life has always been enriched because of her and her dear family.
