“ Mrs. Bobbie lived beside my grandmother, Charlotte Teasley, for close to 20 years on Wildcat Bridge Rd. She was always so nice and was the best neighbor my grandmother could have asked for. Praying for the family!

“ We will never forget you Mrs Bobbie.
How blessed we were to have you take care of Jordan when he was a baby.
You were so much more than a babysitter...
I remember him learning to pull up in your front living room holding onto that rocker.
I remember when you sat in the floor with him and celebrated his 1st birthday...you and him Noth were covered in chocolate frosting.
And to this day (he's 33)
He still.loves tomato-potato soup.
You took such good care of him.
We both loved you so much..
I would bring him in the mornings and you'd have me a cup of coffee waiting.
You have a glorious new body now and look at you..running on those streets of gold.
