

Mrs. Bonnie Floyd

May 8, 1927 - March 23, 2013

Mrs. Bonnie P. Floyd went to be with her savior and lord, Saturday Morning, March 23, 2013. Bonnie lived in the Redwine Community of Hart County for most of her life and most recently at the Brown Memorial Center in Royston, GA.

Bonnie and her late husband, Andrew Floyd, were proud to be Turkey and Cattle Famers for many years. Bonnie worked tirelessly for her family and created a warm loving home for her husband, children and grandchildren.

Bonnie was a member of the Redwine United Methodist Church and loved singing in the choir. Although she was unable to attend her church in the last years of her life, she continued to love and pray for her church family.

Bonnie loved a good laugh and was the class clown according to her classmates. She was an avid Atlanta Braves Fan and her favorite pastime was watching the Braves on TV. She loved playing basketball and was on the team that won the State Championship her senior year.

Mrs. Floyd was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Andrew Floyd.

Survivors include her daughters and sons-in-law, Joan & Jackie Whiting of Canon, GA and Revonda & Ricky Tyner of Canon, GA; grandchildren, Jason Whiting, Allison Whiting and Macale Tyner; great grandchildren, Chloe and Paisley; sisters, Betty P. Childs of Canon, GA and Mary Alice P. Ayers of Snellville, GA. Beloved Friend and Caregiver Sandra Massey.

Funeral services for Mrs. Floyd will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, March 26, 2013, at the Pruitt Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Don Richards officiating. Burial will follow in the Redwine United Church Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at Pruitt Funeral Home from 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. Monday evening. The family is at their respective homes.

Pruitt Funeral Home in Royston, GA is in charge of arrangements.
