“ I knew Carl in Waynesboro, when his folks owned the bowling center, and a group of us high school buddies hung out there. I was 3 years older. Thirty years later I met him again at a bowling center in GA. We were on different teams in the same league. We joined together with some other guys and bowled together for the next 3 or 4 seasons. I reconnected with him again via Facebook after he moved to Maysville. We planned to get together sometime, but sadly, the opportunity never came up. I'm very sad to hear about his passing. My condolences to the family.

“ I just heard the belated news of Carl's passing. I have nothing but good memories of one of the guys I hung out with back in high school. It is my guess that everyone he met throughout his life has a good memory of him.

“ Carl, I couldn't have asked for a better neighbor. In the darts series of Carl vs Carl, I'll bet you were a few wins ahead. But win or lose, I always enjoyed the game. I will miss you my friend.

I got to know Carl from when I was based in Atlanta, some three decades ago - and am surprised and saddened to hear of his passing. I must have last seen him a couple of years ago (when I was over in GA for a few weeks) and he drove us out to play in some charity poker event.

I'm very sorry that Carl's now left the game, and leaves us all with a very unique 'Carl-shaped' hole where his affable, warm and easy-going character will be greatly missed.
