“ Shame I love you and will greatly miss you. Shane always love staying with us. And when he got up, he wanted his grilled cheese sandwich. And then they would see who eat the most. But I will never tell.LOL

One of my favorite memories was when the Falcons went to the Super Bowl for the first time. Debbie and Danny told us if they win the division championship we had to get up and do the dirty bird dance. We held our end of the deal and looked so goofy but we did our dirty bird dance. Shane you are already missed but you will never be forgotten!

“ I’ve know Shane since kindergarten. Before we moved to Oconee co .. Shane avd I was always together . We was inseperateable .. I was at his house or he was at mine .. his mom Debbie was my second mom .. both my mom thought of Shane as her other son and Debbie thought of me as her other son . I love Shane with all of my heart and was my brother .. I will miss you so much bubba but I know you are not suffering .. I will see you in heaven at some point .. I will miss you !!

“ I knew Shane from work at Reliance. He was always nice, friendly, and had a smile. Several of us shared the same table at lunch in the break room and Shane would get him a nice plate from the cafeteria along w a nice dessert...guess one he ate first...that nice looking dessert. I'll always remember that about him. Such a shame he left us so young because he was pleasant to be around. I know he'll be deeply missed by his loved ones.
