“ I knew Darby for many years, now. In fact, it's been decades ago, since I met him. I knew him from the auction at Canon, GA., which is where I met him at, around 1992, or 1993. Been attending the auction, on, and off, over the years, and decades, since then. He was a good fellow. Always smiling, and friendly. He will be deeply missed, and the auction won't be the same, without him. Rest in peace, Darby. Love always, Mary Cothran.

Many fond memories of him at the auction, me and my sister's sang there many many times and he would always say he enjoyed it and ask when we were coming back. He was always very courteous to me and never spoke a bad or mean word . Always smiling when I would see him in the store he would be talking to someone and probably cracking a joke. He will be missed in Royston for sure. RIP Darby... God bless his family ....🙏🙏

Darby and I were in the same graduation class at Royston High School. We got our drivers license at Toccoa at the same time. We were driven there by his mom in their 1954 Ford. The driver license examiner took us out for our driving exam. Darby drove first and did a great job. Then, it was my turn. I had never driven her car before and was very nervous. I took my time and drew a comment from the examiner about how fast I made a turn into the State parking lot. We both passed.

Whew, I was relieved.
