“ My deepest condolences to the passing of David. I remember when my husband, Mac and I moved back to Canon a few years ago, David and his Dad were the first to welcome us next door. Both wonderful, caring people and David will be missed by so very many. May God bless and watch over you all.

“ I will miss you my friend. Rest in Peace now -- with no pain -- no sorrow -- You now have your tomorrow!! David this is for you.

Death is nothing at all

I have only slipped away into the next room

I am I and you are you

Whatever we were to each other

That we are still

Call me by my old familiar name

Speak to me in the easy way you always used

Put no difference into your tone

Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow

Laugh as we always laughed

At the little jokes we always enjoyed together

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was

Let it be spoken without effort

Without the ghost of a shadow in it

Life means all that it ever meant

It is the same as it ever was

There is absolute unbroken continuity

What is death but a negligible accident?

Why should I be out of mind

Because I am out of sight?

I am waiting for you for an interval

Somewhere very near

Just around the corner

All is well.

Nothing is past; nothing is lost

One brief moment and all will be as it was before

How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!

*I have lost a very long time friend and my memories of him playing bass in the ole barn and in the little shop in Toccoa will stick with me forever. God now has a new Angel to look over all of us Rednecks now.
He will be missed by many! Thanks David for the good times and
