“ Sheriff,

I wanted to take this moment to express my condolences on the loss of Cruz Thomas. While I never had the privilege of meeting him, I certainly know you and the kind of son you would raise. It is also indicative of the impact he had on others based on the tremendous support you've received during your time of loss. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Take care.

“ Stevie,
I remember what a proud father you were when Cruz was born, while you and I were working together at FCEMS. Keep those wonderful memories in your heart, and trust that God has a purpose in everything He does. Please feel free to call me anytime.
With love and prayers for you all everyday,
