“ I remember that time that my big truck broke down in Pennsylvania. Ed Dowell loaned me a truck, Doug loaned me a fifth wheel wrecker, and I went and brought my truck back and fixed it myself. They wanted way to much money to fix it up there. I carried the fifth wheel wrecker back to Doug and he would not take any money for me using it. How rare is that these days? He was indeed a very good man. I will never forget his kind act of generosity. Prayers to his family.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out for the entire family. Doug was married to my mom Gail when I was a little girl so he was my step dad when I was a little girl. I remember being at my mom’s and Doug driving his big transfer truck home and I was amazed at how big the truck was and he let us climb up in the truck and sit in the seat and blow the horn and to this day I still do the hand motion to get the Truck drivers to blow the horn . When I think of Doug I think of a man who loves his Family very much and would do anything he could for his family . RIP “
Papa Doug”
