“ My life of 83 years is filled with loving memories of Uncle Ed. In my mind I always viewed him as being the patriarch of my mother, Bessie's family. He seemed to always be there when there was sickness or financial need in my family of 5 girls and my sharecropper Dad's meager existence. When I think of his kindness I am reminded that the Bible speaks of honoring one's mother and father that your days may be long on the Earth.....well, Uncle Ed honored his entire family and I (especially) was BLESSED by his warm and loving heart. Heaven is much brighter today and for eternity.
