“ For my little brother. I loved the way your smile made me feel loved and welcome. I loved the bone crushing bearhugs you used to give me and even the head thumps! I will miss the long phone calls when we discuss the Bible, and the way you loved to talk about your savior. I'm so happy for the sweet memories of our childhood together, how we used to walk to church together every Sunday. We laughed, we cried, and we got in trouble together. I pray God's comfort for my brother's sweet wife and family in this time of grief.

“ Hallelujah!! To God be the glory! I know the angels are rejoicing as they greet my uncle in paradise this day! We on this earth will feel the loss of one of Gods warriors, but in heaven, he is with our Father in his new strong body. Uncle EL has made a large impact on my life throughout the years. Some of my fondest memories are of listening to him sing praises to the Lord, while playing his guitar. So I say, happy homecoming to you Uncle EL! May God give us, that are still on this earth the courage and faith to continue spreading the good news about Christ's love as you did!
