Carole and I send our love and sympathy. We are the couple from St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hartwell that shared communion with your mother, however, we no longer live in Hartwell...we now live in Athens

“ Elizabeth, I don't know whether you remember me or not. My mother was in the nursing home at Royston, she passed away in 2013. We talked once and about where you lived and that I only lived maybe a couple of miles from you off the road that you lived on. So sorry to hear of your mother's passing. You have memories of all the good times that you shared with her that no one can take away. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
