“ Gail was such a special person! When I went to church with her she always kept me laughing! I will always have fond memories of her! She was a wonderful lady! Whenever I saw her out somewhere I always spoke to her and she always had something funny to say about life in general! She will be missed by all who knew her and ever met her because she always left a lasting impression! God Bless and be with each of you in this time of your grief but you can also rest in the assurance of knowing she is in heaven now!
Sincerely
