“ I meet Liz in 1972 when my husband and I moved to Ga. from Ohio. Randy worked for Bud at the shop and we had a trailer on the other side of the shop. Liz always said God sent me to her as Mark was a baby at the time. We would run around in that little blue bug. She would tell me I was the daug. She never had. But she sure loved her 5 boys. After a few years we moved back to Ohio, but I never forgot a birthday, valentines,mothers day or Christmas card as we always stayed in touch. She for sure was beautiful inside and out. Extending my heartfelt sympathy and may time ease your pain and sharpen your cherished memories of Liz..... As always, Judy from Ohio

“ Some people you meet and forget, but some you meet stay in your heart forever. Liz has stayed in my heart from the first day we met! She was such a sweet, sweet woman. Strong-willed & independent, but also humble. Even though she told me how much she loved each of you and how proud she was of each of you just the way she spoke of you all, it was evident by the sparkle in her beautiful eyes and the smile on her face! I know you will miss her and I'm so, so sorry you have to face this time of separation from her. Until that glad Reunion Day, I hope you will reflect on sweet memories of your precious Liz. Keeping you all in my prayers!—April M.
