“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of this sweet man. I always thought he was such a quiet, handsome man who stood tall and strong like an oak tree. Our love and prayers are with the family as you try to live with a new normal. God will give you strength and comfort during the days ahead. Much love... Barry and Norma Walters.

“ Some men believe their greatness lies in what they say. Emmett or Bud as Hopey says greatest ness showed in how he lived. Honest, hard working, thoughtful he shared his thoughts with his eyes. A twinkle of love for a child, a grandchild and of course for the love of his life. A sparkle of agreement if you happened to say something intelligent enough to impress him. Then of course he had an eyebrow raise when maybe you stated something not so agreeable. His smile, his wisdom and his wit will be missed greatly by all that knew and loved him. God got a good one.

“ *From the family of Hubert and Katie Eubanks in Woodstock Georgia. We are sorry for your loss, and y'all we'll be in our prayers. I remember hearing my grandparents talk about the entire family. I still have a gate that Bud welded together, it was made out of a steel bed frame.
God bless
