“ An amazing women I was so thankful to know and become part of her family. I have the greatest memories from our visits and the stories she would tell. The first time my husband brought me to Georgia to meet his family he took me to meet Irvin and Eunice. She made us lunch. I will never forget, it was a peanut-butter and banana sandwich. It was one of the best sandwiches I've ever had. I loved her smile and engergy when she would talk about her family. Very classy lady. She will be deeply missed in our lives but our memories with her will live on.
