

Mr. Foster Wilder Harrison

December 23, 1936 - November 24, 2020

Mr. Foster Wilder Harrison, 83, of Royston, GA passed away on Tuesday, November 24, 2020, at his home.

Mr. Harrison was born in Royston, GA on December 23, 1936, son of the late of the late Paul Patton Harrison and the late Carolyn Lee Wilder Harrison. He was a retired United States Air Force Pilot having flown a B-52 Bomber during the Vietnam War. Mr. Harrison received numerous medals of honor while in service, but he was most proud of his Air Medal and Distinguished Flying Cross for flying over 200 missions. He was also a member of the Mill Shoal Baptist Church where he served as secretary, treasurer, and a Sunday School teacher.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Paul Patton Harrison.

Survivors include wife, Barbara Hobbs Harrison; son, Foster W. Harrison, Jr. of California; step-daughter, Libby Bowers of Hart County, GA; sister, Rebecca O'Conner of Decatur, GA; grandchildren, Loren Harrison and Anna Harrison; step-grandson, Grant D. Bowers; three great-granddaughters; and special nephew, Randy Cromer.

A graveside service with military honors for Mr. Harrison will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, November 27, 2020, in the Rose Hill Cemetery with Rev. Eric Buffington officiating. Due to Covid-19, the family respectfully request that face masks be worn.

Pruitt Funeral Home in Royston, GA is in charge of arrangements.
