“ My deepest condolences to you, Bragg family. Miss Geneva was one of the kindest friends a Pastor could have. She attended Hannah's Creek Baptist years ago when I Pastored there. We always sang together, laughed, and most of all Praised God. No question, she is now with her Savior. Prayers for you all.

My parents Mr and Mrs James Coolidge Tanner were friends with James and Geneva when I was young. They were always getting together on weekends and making music. I remember them both well. They are together again . I know she will be missed. I miss my father and the music he played. Patricia Tanner Cleveland
