“ I am also George's first cousin, Bill Strickland. George and I traveled from Royston to many UGA football games both in Athens and away games. In 1962 or '63 UGA had played Clemson at Clemson. About the 2nd quarter the rain and hail came. Fans scattered to safety where they would stay dry. I went under the stadium seats. Later when George and I met back at his car, he was dry and I was soaked. He told me he followed a crowd into the ladies restroom! Being younger than George, he was always the driver He'd turn on the radio and sing with the tune being played. What a treat that was. George was such a super fellow, friend and special cousin. My deepest sympathy to his family.

George and I were classmates from 1st grade on. We were also roommates at U of Ga. We lived on the 2nd floor of the YMCA. We had maid service, a basketball court and a swimming pool. It was 1 block from the Varsity where we ate many of our meals. It was also about a block from the bus station where we caught a Greyhound home on weekends

“ I thought the world of George. I enjoyed buying parts from him over the years. I was saddened when he sold out. He sure was great guy! Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

With our sympathy,

“ All,
I'm George's first cousin, Joe Strickland. Growing up, as my family would visit Royston and Franklin Springs, George was a regular at family events. He was ALWAYS smiling and happy and ready to crack a joke. Heaven is a happier place with him there.
