“ Judge Bryant was a great man who I always enjoyed talking with! We talked a lot over the years as I served as Deputy in Franklin County and He served as our Judge. I could always call him if I had a question about handling service on court orders and he was there to help. My wife and I ate with him on many occasions at the Roystonian Restaurant. We will always cherish the memories of these times. Praying for Gods Blessings for family!

“ I always enjoyed and admired Judge Bryant. Our paths crossed in civic service as well as my administrative position at FCHS. More recently, he called me to say that he enjoyed reading my meanderings in the Citizen, lifted from my blog. I appreciated that so much and sent him a copy of my memoir. Our community has lost a giant ! May all his family members be blessed with happy memories.

Judge Bryant was a friend to all who knew him! My having worked in the legal field for over 40 years I know he was highly respected as an attorney and as a superior court judge, He will always be remembered for his fairness and kindness.
