“ To the Brown Family,

Please accept our sincere condolences on the loss of your mother and grandmother. Although no words can take away the sorrow that you bear, may it be comforting know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Holding all the wonderful and precious memories of her in your heart will help ease your pain. May time help heal the sadness that you are feeling and bring you peace.

As a child I had visited in her home and was delighted to see her as we played bingo each Tuesday at the nursing home. She was always smiling and upbeat . She always did a devotional before we came and prayed thanking God for being in such a good place to be . We missed seeing her after the virus and wondered how she was doing. We all enjoyed her and there is no doubt where she is 🌸
