“ I will always cherish the fond, childhood memories of you, Gregory “Pete” Phillips, Clint, and I playing flag football, playing in and around the barn, and even when you may have been involved with having me run and hide from those loud jets that would fly over from time to time. I know you, your Dad, Clint, Miss Mildred, and many other family and friends have rejoined and rejoiced in spirit. We love you, Gregory “Pete,” a sweet, kind, gentleman and we will truly miss you. I pray for God’s strength, comfort, and peace for Rachel, Gary, and the entire family; may He carry them through this difficult loss and broken-heartedness. May you Rest In Peace. I love you, “cuz.”
With love and prayers, love Vickie and Mike
