“ Condolences to the whole Jackson family. Jean was such a good woman and a wonderful cousin. I am first cousin to Warren, her husband. Jean and Warren were 10 to 12 years older than I, so when I was a teen they had already started their family. My family lived in South Georgia when I was growing up and Jean & Warren lived in Canon. Our mutual grandmother lived in Canon also. My family traveled to Canon once each year to visit our grandmother. While we were there, Warren & Jean and girls (boy wasn't born yet), would come to visit at Grandma's house and brought those 4 beautiful little girls. Judy, Margie, Janice, Susan, & Tim, my heart felt sympathy goes out to you. Keep the memories of your mom in your heart. Love & prayers to you all.

Jean was my cousin. I am from the member of the family that moved to Texas around 1895. Jean and I used to exchange correspondence. I love all of the family there. Frank Hall, Reno, Nevada
