“Mrs. Hilda Mae, I can without reserve claim to have had more fun and good times with you than anyone or anytime in my entire life. Whether it be fishing, playing UNO, shopping together, screaming at referees and umpires whether it was right call or not. Before this brain disorder descended upon me you were my life and not being able to share all the things we had once delighted in hurt so much and I know it left you with great sadness also. It's a cross I must carry, and I will share and keep the prayer we always parted with while holding hands alive. Your visit last night was inspiring, and I look forward to many more. Your love was truly unconditional and felt more today than ever. One of those fun memories was when you and I were jug fishing after dark, and we had an alligator gar hooked up. When I said it's alligator gar you took off running toward the front of the boat screaming at me leave it alone. We did cut the line and laughed our heads off. We did have a lot of fun fishing trips together. The Braves games were the best ever, you always had the perfect tailgate treats prepared and the foul balls we snagged made those days a little better. I loved the mountain trips we made purchasing produce catching lunch at the cafe and always giving thanks to God for providing. When we ventured out on our shopping days it was always an adventure filled with much laughter and cutting up. It's been years since I had that much enjoyment and not sure if I will ever experience such joy again, maybe so when we meet again. I know you are in the place you belong, and I pray the same prayer we always without fail prayed. Dear Christ, our Lord and Savior please heal these family wounds with truth and honesty and restore it to your glory for we know it delights you. This is the first time in a couple of years that I've been able to string enough words together to form more than a sentence and Mama it's you that inspired me. Please be my inspiration to finish our story. Forever in my heart, I love you; take care, and God bless. Love, Truth, Kindness, Peace & Forgiveness will always breed HOPE

“ Hilda was my Grandmother In-Law, but she was more like a true grandmother to me. We actually shared the same Birthday (May 25th). One of the first few times I was around her, we were talking about her home cooking. She asked me how I made my beans. I was a little puzzled by her question because my answer was I just open up a can and poor it in a pot. She laughed so hard, and she loved to tell people that story all the time. I so enjoyed our time spent together. I would take her grocery shopping and then she would ask me to take her to Walmart because she could buy certain things cheaper. She was frugal, she was smart, she was a fire cracker and she was a hoot to be around. I loved her and will miss her very much. Go rest high on that mountain Hilda!
