“ I am very sorry for the passing of Mr. Bryant. His son David has impressed me the true meaning of family and life in his personal quest to care for his father in such a good and complete manner. I wish for peace to come and Horace now can rest complete with his new body and he is soaring hi now out of pain and discomfort. I hope for his family to have peace and to go forward now and enjoy all life as I think he would. Very proud of you David!
