“ To Jackie’s family - I was shocked to hear of your loss. Jackie and I were friends since grade school. I lived on Phillips Street and we would walk to and from school together. Jackie was always so cheerful and happy and fun to be around. We connected again a little while back and had lunch with another school friend. Jackie had not changed one bit! Was glad to see her at our last reunion and has so much fun. Jackie was a good friend and I will miss her. Also, please know that she loved her family fiercely. Everytime she talked about any of you it was with so much love. I will remember you in my prayers.

Love,

“ Jackie was a classmate and we all loved her dearly. Her humor and wit kept is happy. We reconnected on FB and have enjoyed messaging and sharing. She grew into a beautiful woman an loving mother. Always giving off herself to others and her family. Her strength in adversity was an inspiration. My heart is broken that she has been taken from us. Butbthecwitldcwas better because she lived. And now there's another angel in heaven. Karen Thompson Ledford
