A great man who will surely be missed. Life won't be the same without you and your smile. You were my hero at the reunions. God has a new home for you to rest and see Pauline and the rest. Such a great loss but heaven bound. It's your new birthday so spread your wings and fly. We all love you and will always treasure every memory.

“ To all the family we are so sorry for your pain.
Mr, Dabney was a good man and neighbor, he was a strong influence on our children.
He was known for his hard work and kindness, all of us in Coile
Town have lost the heart of our community.
