“ Knew each other through junior high and high school. He was a good man who lived for his family and loved them unconditionally. Sending prayers of strength and healing to the family in this time of sadness. There is another angel to watch over you and a light at the end of this dark tunnel.

“ To Hammock's family members:

My son, Matthew, and I extend heart felt sympathy to all of you at this time. My late husband, Harold Lee Wade, worked with him at LASP. After my husband's death, I too worked at LASP, and became acquainted with Hammock. In fact, when the firing range was named for Harold, Hammock shot the gun in memory of him.

You are in our thoughts and prayers, as we certainly understand the lost of a husband/father. Love, hugs, and prayers.

Trudy Thomason Wade, and son, Matthew Lee Wade
