

Mr. James David Harper

September 21, 1948 - January 29, 2025

James David Harper passed away peacefully at home on January 29, 2025, at the age of 76.

David was born on September 21, 1948, in Orlando, FL to the late James Howard Harper and the late Leigh Adelia Murial Horne. He attended the University of Florida and worked as a journalist and copywriter for many years before launching his own marketing consultancy.

He is survived by his loving children, Tom Harper of Watsonville, CA, Jennifer Lambert of Chandler, AZ, Amanda Cox of Nashua, NH, and Sarah Lee of Ft. Myers, FL; sister, Elaine Horton of Atlanta, GA; and by his many grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Bill; and sister, Beverly.

David will be incredibly missed by his family, friends, and local community in Bowman, GA. He will continue to live on in the hearts and memories of those who knew and loved him.

A private memorial service for immediate family will be held at a later date.

To honor David, the family requests that you plant a flower this spring in remembrance of him. He would have really liked to know that the world became more beautiful even as he departed it.

“You must do something to make the world more beautiful.”- from a family favorite children’s story,
