I will always remember his sweet smile and love of trucks. On the Co trip, he was the only one Darrell would let drive the Dodge! Drive on, Jeremy!

Brad & I have so many fond & funny memories of Jeremy! We are still in shock as are so many others. We are praying daily for you Connie, Jerry & Lori as well as the rest of the family that loved Jeremy so dearly! We know he was the loving Baby Boy of the family & only God knows why he was taken so soon & we have to trust God's plans as hard as that may be. I am praying fiercely that God wraps His loving arms around all Family & Friends to give them all the comfort & peace that only He can at this time. Love to you all! Brad & Angela Blalock Jeremy, I never had a chance to meet you but our family is connected by aunts and uncles. My mother was Gladys Busby Cliff and her brother was Hubert Busby. Your father was her nephew Jerry Busby. My mother would have loved you to pieces. She's no longer with us as I'm sure she will meet you in Heaven. To the family, You will always have my prayers and may God help to ease your pain. I love you all.

“ *Connie, Jerry and Lori,
Troy, Michael and I are complete in shock and at a loss for words.
We watched Jeremy and Michael grow up together at Granny Stamps' house. They had so many wonderful times together and we adored Jeremy. Please know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers. We are just devastated.
With love,
Lin, Troy and Michael Land*
