“ I have lived next door to Jerry and his family for many, many years. Jerry was a nice, caring and a very helpful neighbor. He cut my grass, took my trash can to the street each week, picked up limbs and leaves in my yard. Many of these things he would do without being asked. He kept my yard looking nice. He was very thoughtful of me. I knew if I ever needed anything I could call on him. He and his kind deeds will be missed.

“ A word of comfort in your time of sorrow: "Almighty God will heal the brokenhearted, He will bind up their wounds." (Psalms 147;3) May the depth of your faith and the love of those who share your loss comfort you at this time of sadness.

“ I remember Jerry as being very quiet and sweet. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. At the time we were teens, some kids called their fathers "my old man". I remember listening to a conversation between some really "cool guys". Jerry stated that he didn't refer to his Dad that way. I have always remembered and respected him for that.

We have lost a kind, gentle soul.

“ I was Jerry's next-door neighbor for almost 19 years prior to his death. He was friendly and helpful to me, especially the times he cut my grass or loaned his mower to me while my mower was being repaired. He removed a nonpoisonous snake from my yard one summer because I was afraid of it. I will always remember the times he walked his dog, Peanut, in the mornings while I walked my dog, Josie. Jerry will be truly missed. My prayers go out to his family.
