“ Jim was a friend to all. He loved to make us "Whigham Folks" laugh. He was about the only one that still called me "Maria!" We are praying for you all.

“ We were so sadden and shocked to receive this news. We thought the world of Jim and you. Having gone thru a similar situation, we can relate the agony and grief and also not understanding, but remember the Lord is always in control. We love allof you and want you to know that you are in our prayers. Doug and Brenda Johnson, Donalsonville, Ga.

“ I lost track of Jim once he left FABT, but I always had great affection and still carry fond memories of the stories he regaled us with about his roosters and tractor... the farm living he seemed to enjoy so much. I share sorrow over this sad departure and send love and light to his family. Fly free, Jim!

“ Jim was a special man and we will miss him and his wit. We are never prepared for the loss of a loved one but GOD is always prepared to help us in that loss. HE promises us in John 14:18 that "I will never leave you comfortless: I will come to you." We join others in love and prayers for all the family. God bless. Hugs, Nancy
