“ I've known Jody for a long time. Sense we were kids. I didn't really see him that much as we got older but when I did I was always a good conversation. I'll miss seeing you at the store from time to time. Rest easy my brother.

“ Jody was a huge part of my childhood. He was someone that would always come when needed and full of laughter. I cherished the time it was just he and I in that old truck going down the road making memories. There are no words that can heal during this time but the strength that only the Lord God Almighty can supply. May a day not go by that we not think of Jody and the life he lived. To God be the glory for all that have a closer walk with our Creator because of Jody. Prayers for the family and friends. Do not forget that Jody is in the presence of God and experiencing what it means to have true joy and healing. We love you Jody!
