Not just my D addy, my friend. Even though we weren't a family of great means, we were rich beyond calculation. blessed. We couldn't afford elaborate vacations, but he always made sure we had fun family times. He even hoisted me on his shoulders when I couldn't see over the crowd. He was not perfect (nor are any of us), but he loved and never let us leave the house or go to bed without affirming that love. We usually took a 1 trip to Six Flags every summer. We laughed like crazy to "Bufford the Buzzard" and hood-winked Mama into riding The Scream Machine. So many wonderful memories of a man who worked 16 hour shifts to provide for our family. There just are not enough words to express the love and thanks. You are now on Golden cart paths, and I pray every stroke is a hole in one. I love you Daddy, and you will be in my heart always!!!!
