“ Where do I begin??? I never in a million years thought that I would be living WITHOUT you. From the day I found out I was pregnant with you I tried SO hard to keep you safe. A very difficult pregnancy and you were still born early. I worried that I was going to hurt you because you were so little and fragile. As you got bigger and grew into a little boy and then a young man still I worried about you and tried to keep you safe. You were such a sweet and caring person always thoughtful and helpful and always the brightest light in the room. So smart and funny and so loving. I knew it was bad when Trisha called and you didn't call me yourself but I prayed SO hard and I begged God not to let it be true but then the phone call with the dr and hearing her say I'm sorry break my heart into a million pieces. My job as your Momma was to always keep you safe and I didn't and I'm so sorry. Sometimes I can't breathe because the pain is so bad but at least I know you will never hurt again. I miss you so much my baby boy and I long for the day when we will all be together again. My love always. Momma

“ I remember cooking brownies and all kinds of deserts for john almost every time i would see him, I remember sitting in the car with john listening to his favorite songs so loud i could barley hear myself think. I remember john always knowing what to say and do to make you feel better. John always got/ understood every single person in at least one way. johns heart was just too full of love and kindness for this world. I love you so much john and we all really really miss you.
