The first time I met mom and dad I was so nervous as when Joe and I first started dating we just spent time together with DJ so it was a little bit of time before I finally met them. At that time my mom and dad were living overseas and I had no idea at that time how much dad would change me, he and mom opened up their home to me and DJ. He reminded me of my dad, he was very mechanically inclined, could build anything and was always a straight shooter, if dad said it he meant it.

I always listened intently when Joe would tell me about the times that he and dad would do projects together. It always gave me comfort knowing that Joe could and would provide for his own family. I look at my husband and see a man just like his dad in so many ways, he's a hard worker, he says what he means, even when it's a little hard to hear. He gives his all.

I saw dad soften over the last several years and it was very difficult when they moved to Florida, when they moved back it was so awesome and the time we had with he and mom during those 3 months was something that Joe and I will always treasure.

Dad is and always will be a little part of each one of us in our own way. I like to think that dad helped me come out of my shell, I could say whatever I was thinking or feeling, even if it was something ugly without judgement or correction. Dad, you will forever be my BFF

“Uncle John and Aunt Shelia's Texas family are so very saddened to hear of his unexpected passing. I've always had such fond memories of John beginning with his courtship of Aunt Shelia at River Beach. He was truly a nice and gentle man and will be missed by all that knew him. It's a comfort knowing that mom was there to welcome John. Praying for all the family during this very difficult time.”
