“ Growing up I went to school with Josh and he was always very sweet. He would help in any way possible if he knew there was a need. He was always very funny and loved to joke around. It's so hard to believe he has passed away. You never know when your time is up here on this earth and the only important thing in life is to know that you are a child of God. Everything else means nothing. Prayers to the family.

“ Steve, Marlene and family. Words can't describe the sorrow I feel for you. My condolences go out to you all. The Lord called him home so soon but his passing is not in vain. He touched many lives and hearts. We will see him again. Until that day comes, we will carry him in our hearts. Sending you all love and prayers that the almighty Comforter helps you through this tragic time. He will be missed but not forgotten.

Josh you were taken home so soon in your young life. The Lord needed you in heaven more than on this earth. You will be missed my Nephew, always loved and never forgotten. Rest with the Lord until I see you again. I love you. Sue Pelletier
