“ Every time I saw you, you always hugged me, always smiled at me. Even if it had been weeks or months, we still talked like friends. I have no words for your loss except I know there is a Father above and a Heavenly Home and i will see you when i get there. Until we meet again, may you be held in the Saviors arms and watch over the ones you left behind. Goodbye my friend... ”

“ I really am going to miss you josh. You were like a little brother to me as much as the time we all spent with one another when we were younger.i wished as we got older we all didnt drift apart. But I know your smiling down on us and watching out for us as always like you did when you were here with us. Keep Emily safe and watch over her as she going miss you so much you were her best friend. I love you josh till we meet again.

Son your mother and me love you beyond words and we miss you so much I am and always will be lost without you baby you were my life and soul. I know that you are so much better off with God and I will see you soon I hope I love you. If you didn't have the chance to know Josh he was an amazing young man and he was wise beyond his years people tell me that they are sorry for my loss but I say we all lost when he went home to be with God.
