“ We all loved Joyce Floyd and her family. I served as her pastor for 11 years and her son Chad and I would fish and hunt together and were good friends. Joyce loved my children and family. She was a continual blessing to us and one of the sweetest people you could ever want to meet. All here brothers and sisters were dear friends to me and Audrie. The only one I did not know was Marvin. We love Lesa and Brian and their families dearly. Praying for you and one day we will all meet again.
