

Mrs. Juanita Collins Harris

October 27, 1929 - April 9, 2022

Mrs. Juanita Joan Collins Harris, 92, of Royston, GA passed away peacefully on Saturday, April 9, 2022.

Mrs. Harris was born in Toccoa, GA on October 27, 1929, daughter of the late William Lewis and Mamie Stancil Collins. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother and “Grandmama.” She is remembered as a welcoming hostess and wonderful cook. Out-of-town family and friends knew they would always get a great meal from Juanita’s kitchen whenever they came to visit. Juanita was gifted with a green-thumb; she loved planting her flowers and watching them grow.

More importantly, she planted the seed of Christ’s love into so many people throughout her life. Mrs. Harris was a member of Royston Baptist Church, where she previously served as a Children’s Sunday School teacher for 25 years and taught the adult women’s class for 15 years. She was also very involved in Vacation Bible School, Training Union, WMU and helped with many youth activities.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, Dr. Wesley Wayne Harris, Sr; son-in-law, Hugh King; brothers, CMSGT Herb Collins and CWO3 Dwight Collins; sisters, Jerry Collins Smith and Carolyn Collins Salley; and thirteen brothers and sisters-in-law and twelve of their spouses.

Survivors include her children, Beth Harris-King of Lavonia, GA, Dr. Ann Rybolt (Tom) of Chattanooga, TN, Susan LeCroy of Athens, GA, Dr. Wesley Harris (Terri) of Kennesaw, GA and Dr. David Harris (Jina) of Royston, GA; brothers, Dr. Myron Collins (Betty) of Augusta, GA, Rev. Winston Collins (Cheryl) of North Augusta, SC and Douglas Collins (Rebecca) of Blairsville, GA; sisters-in-law, Jane Collins of Davidson, NC and Patsy Harris of Cumming, GA; eighteen grandchildren, forty-two great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harris will be held in the Royston Baptist Church at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 10, 2022, with Rev. Matt Law and Dr. Tom Rybolt officiating. Interment will follow in the Rose Hill Cemetery in Royston.

The family will receive friends at Royston Baptist Church from 2:00 p.m. until funeral hour on Sunday afternoon. During other times the family will be at their respective homes.

Flowers are optional; memorials may be made to Royston Baptist Church Endowment Fund at 767 Church Street Royston, GA 30662, Samaritan's Purse at PO Box 3000 Boone, NC 28607, or to World Evangelism at 1851 Eveningside Way Kennesaw, GA 30152.

Pruitt Funeral Home in Royston, GA is in charge of arrangements.

“ so sorry to hear about Mrs. Harris's passing... I grew up with the Harris household.... I'm not sure what they were called but I'm thinking they were called congo cookies that Mrs. Harris made for us and they were awesome.. they might be called blondies today ! It was nice that I got to visit with Mrs. Harris a few times when she and my mom were together at the Gables.. I'm sure she will be missed greatly by that huge Harris clan that she leaves behind but her positive influence on each of them will continue..

“ Remembering the Harris family in my thoughts and prayers. Ms. Juanita was a remarkable woman...my first interaction with her was when she would come and visit 'Pop Collins' on PCU at Ty Cobb. What a lovely person and such a neat sense of humor. How wonderful it has been to have had the pleasure of knowing both Ms. Juanita and Dr. Wesley Harris for a brief moment of time and I look forward to seeing them both again.

“ Juanita was a dear friend. She and her husband were so good to Connie Mack and me during our days as missionaries in Africa. We had many visits with her when she was living at The Gables. She loved people and she loved the Lord. Great is her reward in Heaven! May God bless and comfort her family during these days!

“ Praise be to the Lord for 'Miss Juanita's Graduation to Glory. She certainly earned her diploma! I did not have the privilege of knowing this dear lady, but I know one of her son's (Wesley, Jr.) and what a fine son he is. Surely she was proud of all her children, grands, and great grands. I do look forward to meeting her someday where the saints are not concerned about the price of gas nor the other troubles of this world. Janet and I send our condolences to all the family and especially those in other parts of this earth.
