“ Many a day when we were kids we would all play in Uncle Coy's chicken houses. Kenny, Tommy, Andy Me, Shorty, Michael, Jimmy & David & and Vivian & Tanya. We would all gather up at Aunt Berts sometimes in Danielsville and play across the road up in the woods building forts. He was always the nicest fellow and i remember me and Kenny getting in trouble with our parents at Granny Lois's apartments for writing on the old ladies white screen doors. Whew wee ...we never did that again. Kenny you will be oh so missed but i know your in Heaven now and ur all healed and better. Love ya sweety

“ To the Family of Kenneth Bridges,

So sorry to learn about the loss of your Dear Loved One, Kenny. Please know that so many people share your grief with you to help you through his difficult time of sorrow. Please accept my deepest condolences as we await the time when Christ Jesus will awaken all of those who have fallen asleep in death; including your Beloved, Kenny. (John 11:41-44)
