“ Grandma I love you and miss you so much already! I'll forever cherish our memories together! I won't ever forget sitting up all hours of the night playing setback with you and the family. We'd always get a kick out of you when you had a mouth full of snuff and you'd get to laughing and it'd just be a cloud of dust. I cherish a lot with you but the one that sticks out is one of the most recent ones, making your infamous dressing with the cornbread and biscuits! I am so glad we had the chance to do that together! It turned out good but I still think you make the best dressing! Rest easy! I love you!
