

Mr. Luther Hartsfield Weaver

October 30, 1933 - November 3, 2018

Mr. Luther Hartsfield Weaver of Gainesville, GA passed away on Saturday, November 3, 2018 at Northeast Georgia Medical Center in Gainesville, GA.

Mr. Weaver was born in Camden, AL, 95 years ago. He was the youngest of six children of Edna Ruth Lazenby Weaver and Oliver Cornelius Weaver, Sr. The family moved to Brewton, AL where his father became superintendent of the Escambia County Schools.

After graduating from high school, he enlisted in the Army and served in World War II as a Technician Fourth Grade. Upon returning, he enrolled in Auburn University, joined Pi Kappa Phi fraternity and received a degree in architecture.

In 1956, he married Virginia Ray at St. Mark United Methodist Church in Atlanta. He joined the architecture firm Cooper Carry where he worked on the design of many Atlanta public schools.

Luther and Virginia were active in St. Anne's Episcopal Church in Atlanta. They both loved the North Georgia mountains and upon his retirement, moved to Big Canoe, GA where he designed and built a house. They later moved to Gainesville, GA to Lanier Village Estates.

Luther was preceded in death by his wife, Virginia. He is survived by a daughter, Gina Weaver Attas; granddaughter, Rochelle Attas; and great-grandson, Anthony.

A memorial service will be held in the auditorium of Lanier Village Estates in Gainesville at 1:00 P.M. on Monday, November 12, 2018. Cremains will be interred in Rose Hill Cemetery, Royston, GA in a private family service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to Grace Episcopal Church, 422 Brenau Avenue, NE, Gainesville, GA 30501 or the charity of your choice.

Pruitt Funeral Home in Royston, GA is in charge of arrangements.

“ I am so sorry to learn of the passing of our family friend Luther. Their daughter Gina was in Kindergarten with my sister Linda, so he was like an extra father to me. I'm going to miss him, but I have many memories to cherish.
