“ I am a volunteer at the Madison County Senior Center and had the great pleasure of getting to know Marshall for several months. Marshall worked with inmates of the jail and showed them by example how to be respectful, honest, compassionate, and hard working. He was a fine man and will certainly be missed by those of us at the Senior Center who looked forward every day for him and an inmate or two to join us at our lunch table. Godspeed, Mr. Marshall

“ Bro. Marshall was an amazing saint of God. I was blessed to have met him over 20 years ago and to be a part of his Revivals and other services. I am thankful for every prophecy and the encouragement he shared with me over the years. I will greatly miss him. I look forward to spending eternity with him in Heaven one day! Love you Bro. Marshall Vaughn. Until we meet again - Tracy
