“ In our minds Buddy and Jane...they were one, as they lived and served on this earth. Their lives so touched our family. It was the lovely piece of china given by them, when our daughter married, in remembrance of the groom's grandparents, whom they had once shepherded. It was Jane's warm embrace of a child, who made teaching a challenge by anyone's standard. It was Buddy and Jane teaching Disciple and gifting each participant with a coin brought home from Israel. It was Jane giving the Emmaus talk on spiritual literature, while Buddy sat at the conference table as lay spiritual director. It was Buddy spearheading the Jones Chapel Family Life Center project. Their humble servanthood with family, with church, with community has left a far-reaching legacy, all to God's glory.

I am sure he is rejoicing now in the presence of the Lord whom he loved and served for many years. He is united with his sweet wife and all family and friends who have gone before him. God bless each and every one of you.
